

Caution Towards Unsolicited Emails & SMS

The exchanges have issued circular regarding the unsolicited email and SMS which are sent to investors. The circular says that the investors are requested to remain cautious on the unsolicited emails and SMS received by various communication medium advising them to buy, sell or hold securities and further the investors should trade only on the basis of informed decision.

The investors are advised to invest in securities only after conducting proper analysis of respective companies and not to blindly follow unfounded/baseless rumours, tips etc. The above mentioned circular can be read on the following links :

NSE -

<https://www.nseindia.com/regulations/unsolicited-messages-report>

BSE - https://www.bseindia.com/attention_investors.aspx

Further, In case the investors come across any activity which they think are spreading rumours, unsolicited news circulation, unregistered research advisory, systemic wrongdoing, potential frauds or even unethical behaviour through the anonymous portal facility they can inform the exchange about it through the following links :

NSE - <https://www.nseindia.com/submit-tipoff>

BSE -

<https://www.bseindia.com/investors/tip-off-registration.aspx?expandable=0/>